Proposal Narrative Prompt

In 500 words, please describe the research that you will be doing while abroad. Please include:

- 1) What is your research question(s)?
- 2) What research methods will you employ?
- 3) How have you developed this research project, including details about how Global Studies faculty will be involved in the research?
- 4) What preparations you have made for this project, such as participation in faculty-led research, courses taken, or theories studied?
- 5) Who you will be working with overseas? (i.e. independent research, working with a NGO; working with a scholar at a foreign university; collaborating with a community group)
- 6) How might this research influence your plans for the future?
- 7) Who might be interested in your work after it is done? In what form would they like it to be shared?
